

Lexington Public Schools

Working with Outside Evaluators: Guidelines for Parents

Presented by Dr. Erik von Hahn, MD

The Special Education Department of the Lexington Public Schools in collaboration with the Lexington Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC) is offering a presentation by Dr. Erik von Hahn, MD* and discussion with Linda Chase, Director of Student Services, and Ellen Sugita, Director of Special Education.

Date: Monday, May 12, 2014

Location: Lexington High School, Science Lecture Hall

Time: 7:30 PM – 9:00 PM

The topic will focus on independent/outside evaluations. Among other related topics, the talk will cover the following:

- Information on finding a qualified evaluator
- What and how to communicate with the evaluator and the district
- District responsibility and process

*Ludwig Erik von Hahn, MD, is a practicing Developmental-Behavioral Pediatrician at Tufts Medical Center